Recommendations:

We have stocked this box camera for years. It has an extremely low failure rating a good picture, plenty of adjustment and provides good imagery in low light. And it provides all of this at a great price. We recommend this camera anywhere for general viewing.

Accessories:

We stock wall mounts for this camera in black and silver. We also have a universal mount that will attach to a drop ceiling rail and you can also get a multitude of lens combinations right out of our warehouse in New York.
